

“THE CANNON BLAST”

SUMMER EVENTS AT THE CANNONBALL HOUSE

19th Century Living

Join us each Tuesday and Thursday morning of July and August at 10:30 for unique programs on 19th Century Living. These programs will be short interpretations of items that had a profound effect on daily life of this period. Learn what a biscuit break is used for, how a weasel operates, the definition of household furnishings and see early devices that have been modified for use today. All of these and many more interesting subjects will be both enjoyable and enlightening for all ages.

“The July Chocolate Challenge”

Join The Cannonball House as we host our first culinary event of the year and participate in your own cooking challenge just as seen on TV. On July 23, 2011 competitors will go head to head with the worlds most favorite food, CHOCOLATE. Come with one or more of your favorite chocolate finger food treats and compete to see who will be the winner.

Competitors will bring their favorite, readymade, chocolate finger food to the Cannonball House and pay to enter each recipe, with each recipe having a chance to be the winner. The 1st place winner will receive 75% of the total entry fee's collected for the event, with the 2nd place winner receiving the remaining 25%. Each recipe will be judged on taste, presentation and description of preparation including any history of the recipe. Every recipe must consist of 60% chocolate.

Contestant's entry fee will include admission for themselves and one assistant to the event. Spectators are encouraged to attend and sample the different chocolate delights that will be judged. Join us for a fun filled event for the entire family. Event starts at 10:00 a.m. so contact the Cannonball House for rules and admission prices.

“Echoes of Music from The Cannonball House”

Join us on August 13, 2011 as The Cannonball House presents, Simple Heritage, a musical group whose talents with period music are impeccable. Learn the history of the music from the mid 19th Century and hear the tunes that would have radiated through out The Cannonball House during the life of its owner, Judge Asa Holt. The program starts at 10:00 a.m. and runs until 1:00 p.m. Admission includes a tour of the 1853 Greek revival home with proceeds going to the operational cost. For more information contact The Cannonball House at 478-745-5982.

“Come Play With Us”

Join The Cannonball House during the month of September as we display our children’s toys and clothing from the 19th Century. See handmade dolls, an antique toy train and learn of the different games that the children had to play with. Enjoy the many items that range from shoes and coats to dresses and bonnets that are only on display for this event. Learn of the challenges that children faced growing up in this bygone era. See our doll collection and enjoy the experience with your children or grand children. Allow us to share these childhood memories with you. For more information contact The Cannonball House at 478-745-5982.

The Cannonball House is a non-profit organization which receives no public funding. Therefore, it depends on private gifts to maintain the operations of the house, as well as to fund various preservation and educational efforts. Your tax-deductible gift provides a significant portion of our general operating income. All members receive free admission and a 10% gift shop discount. (There are additional benefits for those at higher membership levels.) Please encourage your friends to become new members.

Our Corporate Members:

Branch Banking and Trust Co.
Central Bank of Georgia
Ken Ward Travel, Inc.
S & S Cafeterias

Burgess Pigment Company
Conditioned Air, Inc.
Lamb & Braswell, LLC
Sun Trust Bank, Middle Georgia

THE CANNONBALL HOUSE
856 MULBERRY ST.
MACON, GA. 31201